PRESS RELEASE

Texas Choral Directors Association announces new partnership for weekly electronic news brief

2011-10-17

Irving, Texas: The Texas Choral Directors Association announced today it has partnered with MultiBriefs to publish Choral Notes, a free, opt-out email resource that will provide comprehensive weekly news for choral directors and music teachers.

Choral Notes is a great way to keep informed. The electronic publication can be read easily in your office, home or via your mobile phone. Archived issues and an RSS feed also are available. Choral Notes is powered by MultiBriefs, a division of MultiView.

ABOUT TCDA

The Texas Choral Directors Association (TCDA) is the professional association that represents choral directors and music teachers within the state of Texas. Founded in 1955, TCDA provides members with the finest in continuing educational activities, encourages continued growth and intellectual development and provides clinics focused on previewing newly released music and on conducting technique and vocal health. TCDA is also active in providing annual scholarships to students and professionals in vocal music. Additionally, TCDA is approved by the State Board for Education Certification as a Continuing Professional Education (CPE) provider.

The mission of TCDA is to support and foster the success of Texas choral directors and music teachers and to instill a love of music in every Texas school, church and community singer.

TCDA is an affiliated state member of the American Choral Directors Association (ACDA) and its Southwest Division (SWACDA).
